

The More, the Maisy-er!

 Maisy is the star of nearly 100 books. Use the following activities with classic Maisy books for a fun Maisy story hour series.

Before your Maisy story hour

Use the printable flyers, posters, and invitations to spread the word about your Maisy story hour. Be sure to write in the date, time, and location before you make copies.

Read the story

Select your favorite Maisy story to read, or ask children to choose from two or three that you have available. You may want to read more than one.

Post-reading activity

After reading the story, look back over the illustrations and invite the children to comment on what they notice.

Some questions you might ask:

Maisy and her friends do lots of fun things. What do you like to do with your friends?

What is your favorite Maisy book?

If you were going to write a Maisy story, what would it be about?

Then hand out the following activity sheets for children to complete at the story hour or take home for more Maisy fun later. Be sure to have plenty of crayons and pencils on hand.

Bonus activity ideas

1. Invite Maisy to your next story hour by arranging for a Maisy visit through Costume Specialists. You can learn more about reserving the Maisy costume by contacting:
Chad Hillman at Costume Specialists
CHillman@COSPEC.com
(800) 596-9357
2. Maisy is friends with Eddie, Charley, Tallulah, and Cyril – and Maisy's readers are her friends too. Pass out crayons or pencils and paper and ask children to draw a picture of themselves with Maisy, doing their favorite activity.

Find the Pairs

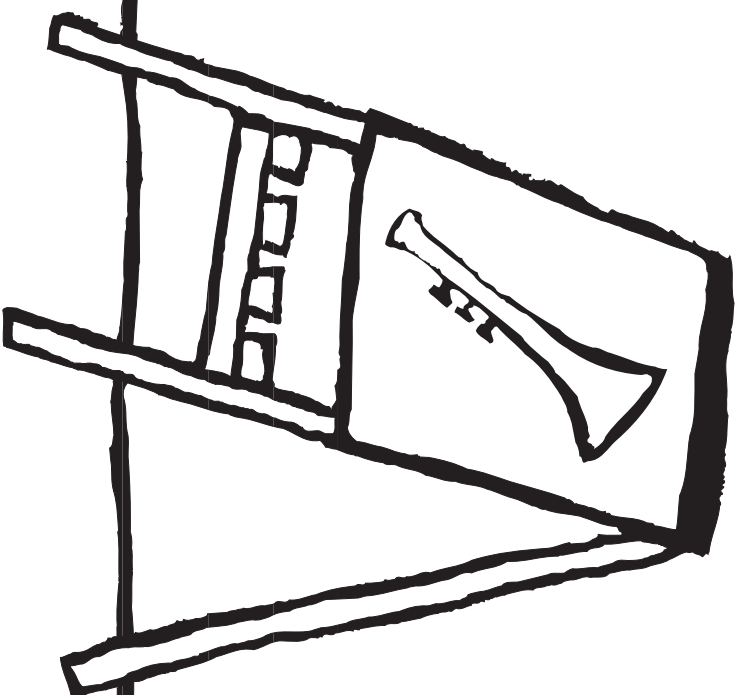

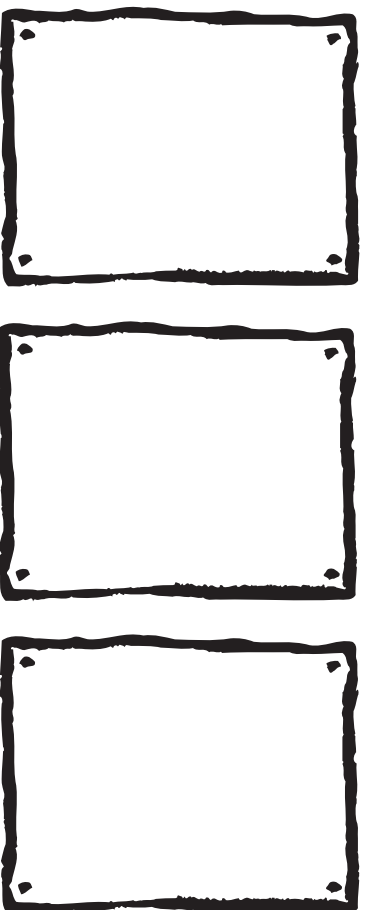

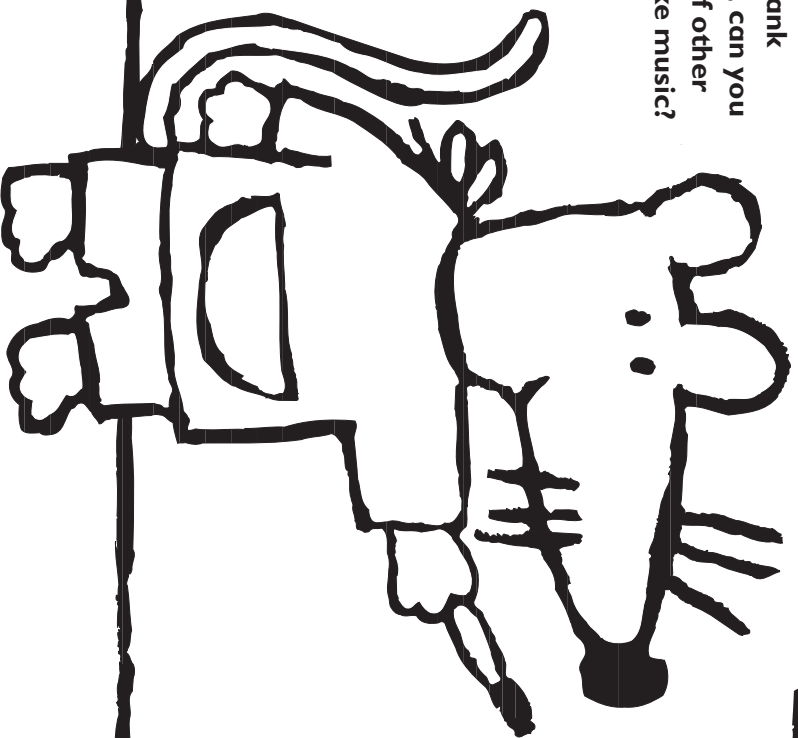

Help Maisy find the matching pairs.
Draw lines connecting the things that are the same.
Then color them in.

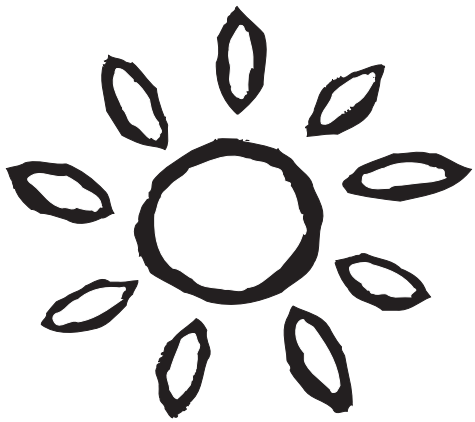

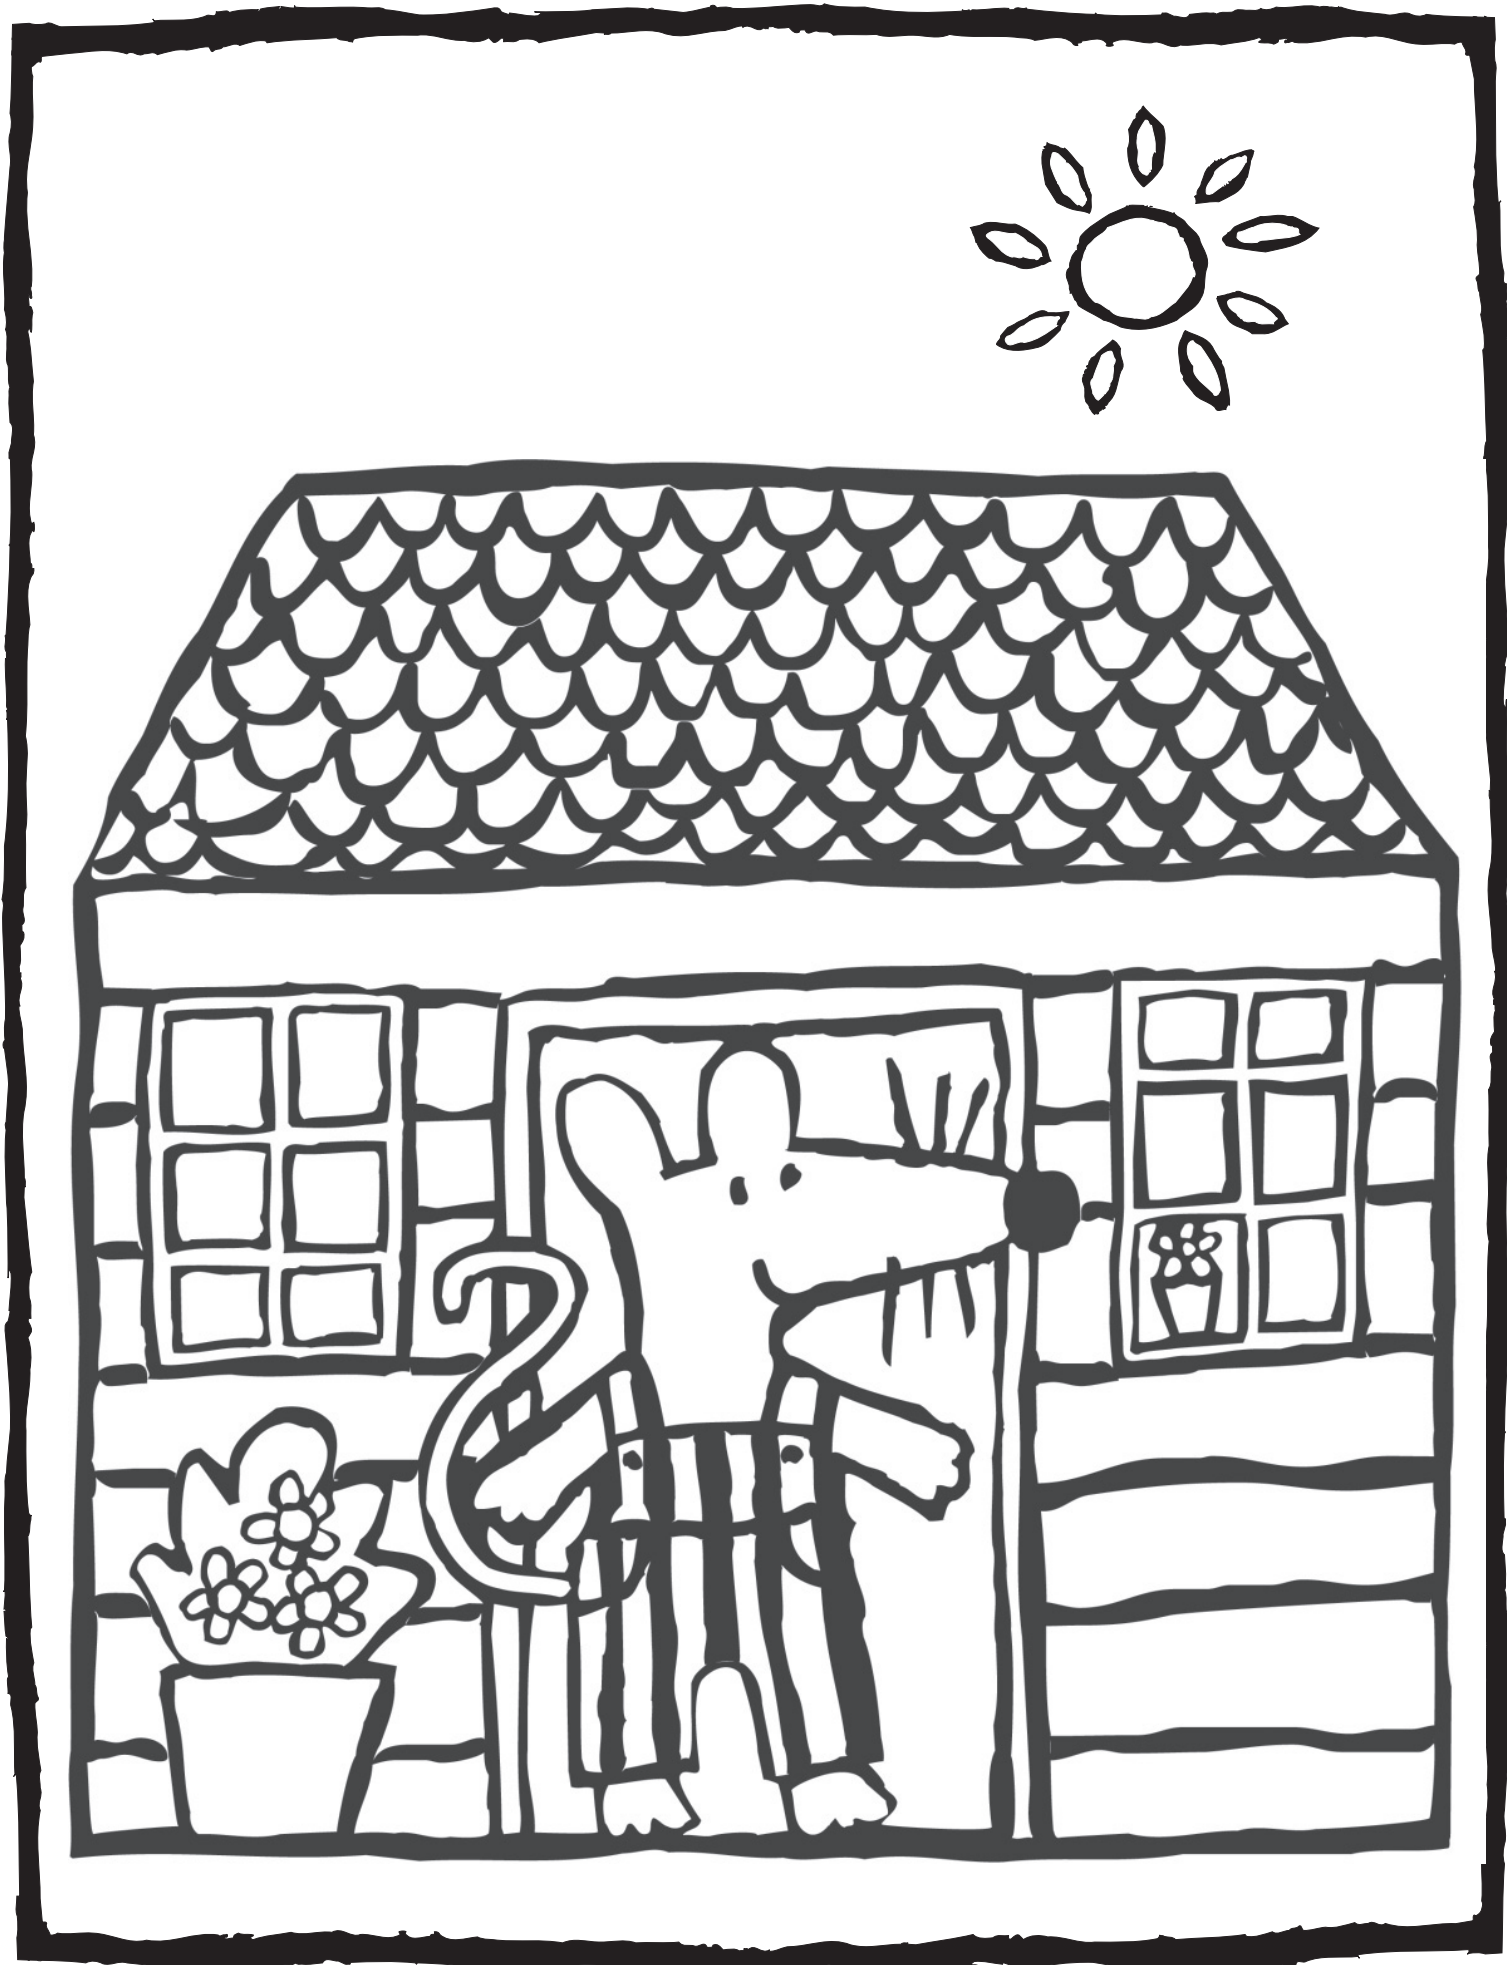

Draw with Maisy

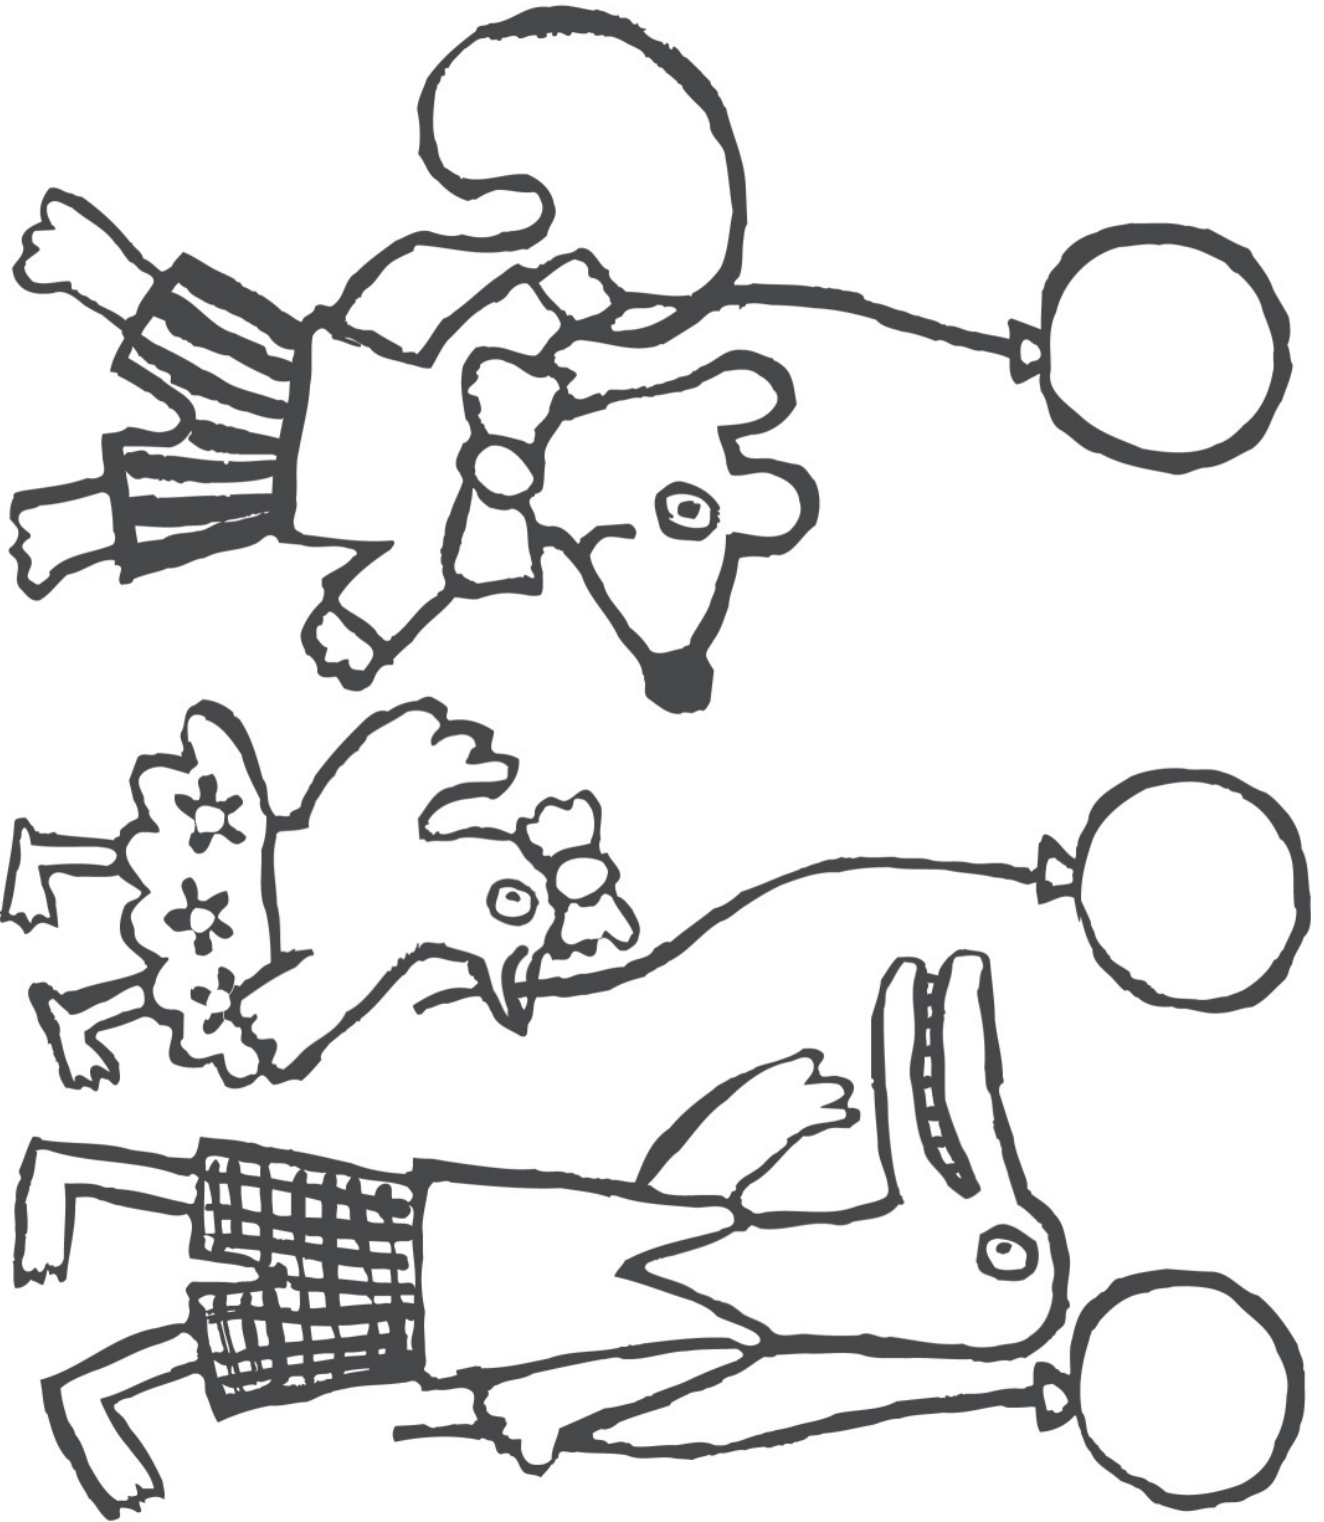

Maisy is painting a picture of a musical instrument.
Can you help color it in? Then color Maisy, too.

On the three blank
sheets of paper, can you draw pictures of other things that make music?
